SPEAKER

Jeff Solheim RN, CHCA, CEN, CFRN, FAEN

Jeff's varied nursing background includes clinical nursing in medical/surgical and emergency medicine, flight nursing, management, administration, and education. Jeff currently speaks in front of audiences around the world on a variety of clinical and motivational topics. He was recently honored by the Emergency Nurses Association with the "Nursing Education Award" for his outstanding contributions to Emergency Nursing through education and publishing. Jeff also contributes to numerous journals and publications including Nursing Spectrum and Healthstreams, and has served as editor or author for numerous books. Jeff is also the founder and director of a third world humanitarian organization called Project Helping Hands which regularly takes medical teams into various third world countries. Jeff combines his sense of humor with stories from his travels around the world to make each seminar a fun and unforgettable experience.
